JUNE 1693.

Printed for the Booksellers of London and Westminster, and to be Sold by Randal Taylor near Stationers-Hall.

To the Reader.

THE Catalogues of Books Printed in London that have been Published of late Years, relating the Titles of the Books only, are not sufficient to give the Reader a due Knowledge of what they contain. The intent therefore of this Catalogue is not only to give the Titles of all the Books that shall from time to time be printed; but also a particular and impartial Account of the Design of each (if they have any) and wherein they differ from others on the same Subject, and the Texts of all Sermons. By this means Persons especially that are distant from London, and have not an Opportunity of seeing the Books themselves, may be the better informed of their Use: and this not only of the Books printed here in England, but also of those printed beyond Sea in France, Germany, Holland, &c. Together with an Account of what Books are printing or preparing for the Press, there as well as here in England, as far as we can have knowledge.

This is our Design, but we cannot say it is here so well performed as we could wish, by reason of the short time and the little assistance the Publishers have had, tho they gave notice to all Book-sellers. By what is done it may be judged what would have been, had a reasonable assistance been given, and what may be done hereafter; this being intended to be published as often as there shall be occasion; notice being in due time given; Book-sellers are desired to send the Books they would have Inserted, to Mr. Randal Taylor near Stationers-Hall, which shall be carefully return'd after an account is taken of them, and the Titles, &c. inserted Gratis. Also if any Author thinks fit to send any particular account of his own Work, it shall be likewise inserted, if it appear agreeable to truth.

This will be of equal advantage to both Buyer and Seller; studious Persons being as desirous of knowing what good Books come abroad, as the Publishers can be of having them well known; it is therefore presumed such assistance will hereafter be given, that the Publishers may be encouraged to continue it.

Divinity.

THE Genuine Epistles of the Apostolical Fathers St. Barnabas, St. Ignatius, St. Clement, St. Polycarp, the Shepherd of Hermas, and the Martyrdoms of St. Ignatius and St. Polycarp; Written by those who were present at their Sufferings; being, together with the Holy Scriptures of the New Testament, a complete Collection of the most primitive Antiquity, for about one hundred and fifty years after Christ: Translated and Published, with a large preliminary Discourse, relating to the several Treatises here put together, by William Wake D. D. Chaplain in Ordinary to Their Majesties, and Preacher to the Honourable Society of Grays-Inn. Printed for Richard Sare at Grays-Inn-Gate. Octavo.

A New History of Ecclesiastical Writers: Containing an account of the Authors of the several Books of the Old and New Testament; of the Lives and Writings of the Primitive Fathers; a judicious Abridgment and Catalogue of their Works; their various Editions, and Censures determining the Genuine and Spurious. Together with a Judgment upon their Style and Doctrine. Also, a Compendious History of the Councils; with Chronological Tables to the whole. Written in French, by Lewis Ellies du Pin, Doctor of the Sorbon: And Regius Professor of Divinity at Paris. Volume I. and II. Containing the Authors that flourished in the four first Ages of the Church. Folio. Price 16 s.

The Third, Fourth, Fifth, and Sixth Volumes of the same, which bring down the History to the end of the Eighth Century, are now in the Press, and will be finished next Term. Price to Subscribers 18 s. in sheets. All printed for Abel Swall and T. Childs at the Unicorn at the West end of St. Pauls Church-yard.

* This Book does effectually contain all that the Title promises, and probably more than a Stranger to it can expect; The abridgment of the Writings of the Fathers being done with very great judgment and integrity, perhaps beyond any that has been before, and all Historical matters concerning the Church most faithfully related: The Doctrine of all those great Men is here very emphatically and impartially laid down, an exact account is given of the Controversies they were engaged in, in defence of the Truth, and all their Arguments, with those of their Enemies are most ingeniously summed up: The Lives of the Authors are short but very pathetically related; and where any extraordinary accidents, such as the Persecution, Punishment, or Exaltation of them has happen'd, he has always been very particular in giving an account of it. Among Ecclesiastical Writers, he puts all the Bishops that Wrote, tho' but Letters to their Clergy, which they having always done upon any thing extraordinary happening among them, gives this Author an opportunity of relating the occasion, which he never fails to do with all imaginable ingenuity: By these means a very particular account is given of all Ecclesiastical Affairs in these times; so that his Book is not only a Bibliotheca of Ecclesiastical Writers, but a very complete and excellent Ecclesiastical History. The Author (as plainly appears by his Work) is a Person of great Ingenuity as well as Learning; he began to write it about the year 1685. when the differences were high between the Pope and the Gallican Church; which gave him a liberty of speaking more freely, than he would have been permitted at another time, as appears by the condemnation he has lately suffered at Paris, his Book being there publicly burnt by Authority; where it seems they sacrifice every thing to their interest at this time; but the reputation it has every where else had, has been very considerable, all Parties having allowed it to be impartially and fairly Written; Our Clergy especially have given it very favourable Characters in many of their Writings, among which these two, the Right Reverend the Present Bishop of Worcester, and the Learned Dr. Cave.

A practical discourse of Repentance, rectifying the mistakes about it, especially such as lead either to despair or presumption, perswading and directing to the true practice of it, and demonstrating the invalidity of a death-bed repentance; by William Payne, D. D. Rector of St. Mary White-Chappel, and Chaplain in Ordinary to Their Majesties, 8vo. sold by J. Wyat at the Rose in St. Pauls Church-yard.

A Work in the Original in effect the most useful Evidentiary and Repertory of Titles that is in print, considering, first the the vast Quantity of Lands which formerly belonged to the Religious Houses in this Kingdom. 2. The divers sorts of Liberties and Immunities, which most of those Houses and their Possessions were endowed with. Thirdly, That by the Statutes, 27 H. 8. Ch. 28. §. 1. & 31. H. 8. Ch. 13. §. 2. 3. It is provided that the King and his Patentees shall have and hold the said Lands in as large and ample manner as the said Houses enjoyed them; and in §. 21. of the last mentioned Statute, that such Lands as were before discharged of the Payment of Tiths should so continue; with many other useful things both in the Common Laws, History and Heraldry; And as it is in the Original, so is it in the English Epitomes, being done by one no less learned than ingenious, which the Reader will easily perceive by his Work; wherein he will find an Historical Account of the Foundation of all Primitive Churches and Religious Structures in England and Wales, as well those that were demolished at the Suppression of Monasteries as those that are still in being; with the Cuts of all the Religious Habits, and many other things both useful, pleasing, and profitable to the Reader.
